THE OPINIONS OF THE PRESS ON THE BAWAIIAN QUESTION.

Judge Hartwell's Reasons for Keeping the ex-Queen Off the Disgraced Hawaiian Throne.

GRESHAM SURPRISED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Secretary Gresham was furnished a copy of the Associated Press bulletin announcing that Minister Willis had presented his credentials to the Provisional government of Hawaii without making any reference to the restoration of the

He seemed greatly surprised, but absolutely refused to express any opin-ion upon the news thus conveyed. entire manner indicated that he did not consider the news reliable or that he entertained an opinion that it did not cover the entire situation. In view of the facts so far made public it would seem more than probable that the Minister upon acquainting Dole with his instructions found the head of the Provisional government obdurate in his determination ment obdurate in his determination to hold his government in power and to resist any effort at its displacement even to the extent of resorting to force.

If, then, Willis' instructions did not contemplate a resort to arms he would find himself at the end of his line and it would be necessary for him to ask additional instructions before proceeding further.

If this should prove to be the case the administration will find itself face to face with an awkward predicament.

STEVENS ON BLOUNT.

AUGUSTA, Me., Nov. 20.—A reporter of the Kennebec Journal called on ex-Minister to Hawali Stevens at his home this evening regarding Com-missioner Blount's report. Stevens said he firmly adhered to all his previous statements. He expressed great surprise at the language of Blount. As to his (Stevens') unwillingness to show him the records of the Legation, Stevens says he feels himself at liber-ty to expose Blount's remarkable conduct toward himself, commencing immediately after Blount's arrival in Honolulu. The statement, Stevens says, will astonish all honorable minds, bringing to Stevens no censure unless it be that he tolerated such insulting treatment without at once resenting it by refusing all intercourse with the offending person. Stevens two weeks ago made an imperative engagement out of the State, which will occupy the next two or three days. With reasonable promptness days. With reasonable prompeters he will be heard in his defense. It is sufficient to say now, Stevens adds, that Blount's report, so far as given to the public, is ex parte and a shame-less perversion of facts.

The following extracts are from the San Francisco Chronicle:
"Liliuokalani must leave the islands," says a morning contemporary in very large and very agly type. Oh, no, she mustn't. If President Dole has a level head, and all his acts have shown that he has a large stock of good common-sense, he will never consent to deporting the ex-queen. At present she has very few sympa-thizers. She proved herself vain, venal, licentious, arrogant and dangerous to the decent white community of Honolulu. Because of her open war-fare on the rights of all citizens she fare on the rights of all citizens she was deposed. She has been almost lost sight of during the last few menths, and it was only Blount's partizan actions and Gresham's silly letter that once more brought her to the front. To deport her would be to make her a martyr and to raise up a strong sentiment in her behalf. We strong sentiment in her behalf. We saw the same thing in Samoa. Old Malietoa is a weak man, with not one-tenth of the ability of Tamasese or Mataafa, yet the fact that he was exiled to Jaluit gave him a fictitious popularity and insured his return to power. No, it would be suicide for the Provisional Government to exile Liliuokalani. If any one desired to restore her to the throne deportation would be the best means to assure it.

The unanimity of the arrivals on the Australia in declaring that annexation was opposed only by ignorant natives and interested whites in Honolulu is something which cannot fail to impress any unprejudiced reader.

Where all the decent people are a unit for one policy the inference is that that policy is the best.

SENT THE WRONG MAN.

Probably the chief reason why Blount was determined to find a con-spiracy in Hawali was that the majority of the revolutionists came of New England stock. They were Yan-kees or descendants of Yankees, whom Blount, as an ex-Confederate and a bitter partisan, hated. Certainly this theory is borne out by the ex-Minister's curious discourtesy to prominent Honolulu people and his marked incivility to Stevens. It was a huge mistake to send such a man on a mission of this bird bort it is only one of sion of this kind, but it is only one of many similar blunders which Cleve-land has made in selecting people for important duties.

HARTWELL'S OPINION.

The point made by Judge Hartwell that Liliuokalani cannot be legally restored is one of the most ingenious that has been suggested during the Hawalian complication. The Judge is well versed in Hawalian law and precedent and he declares positively that the queen violated her oath of office when she tried to abrogate the office when she tried to abrogate the constitution under which she took office. That really vitiated her title to what was purely an elective office, as she is not of the blood royal. Hence Mr. Hartwell argues that this government has no legal right to seat her again on the throne from which she was included. This point should was justly ousted. This point should be referred to Secretary Gresham, who has probably come to the conclusion that his knowledge of law is about on a par with his grasp of diplomacy.

HOW THE NEWS WAS SPREAD. CHICAGO, Nov. 18 .- The handling of the news brought by the steamer Australia from Honolulu was one of the most remarkable achievements in news annals. The interest through-out the country, especially in Wash-ington, New York and Chicago, is in-tense, as they confidently believed the steamer would bring the news of a conflict between the Provisional Government and representatives of Government and representatives of the United States. The Australia arrived inside San The Australia arrived inside San Francisco harbor at 9:20 A. M., San Francisco time, or 11:20 A. M. central time. The copyright letter of the Associated Press, of 2000 words, was placed on the Western Union wire at San Francisco at 11:25 A. M. central time and was completed at Chicago at 12:00 P. M. This letter and the bulletins were placed on the leased wire system of the Associated Press and system of the Associated Press and were delivered at all points including a private copy to President Cleveland, one hour in advance of any other in-formation, official or otherwise.

The people want to know the worst about this Hawaiian busi-What is Mr. Cleveland's ness. Minister doing there now? Can it be possible that the Administration has dared to menace the Hawaiian Government without first taking advice of Congress and the people-without even declaring its purpose? Can it be possible that American guns are being prostituted to set up the rule of vice and ignorance over that of enlightenment and progress, and to sur-round a half-civilized kanaka woman with the monkey show of a preposterous monarchy? This is what an American Secretary of State, prancing around in Quixotic extravaganza, has actually proposed. Is it already ordered? The people are entitled to know,-New York Tribune.

AN HISTORICAL PORM.

An Entertainment at Kawainhas Seminary.

The teachers of Kawaiahao Seminary prepared a Thankegiving entertainment for the scholars last Friday which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The affair was in the form of an historical poem and was well rendered.

About thirty-five were on the improvised stage, dressed in costumes representing ancient and modern countries and characters. Ceres, the goddess of plenty, was there, and also English, French and Ha-walian maidens, Priscilla the Puritan maiden, and many others.

Quite a number of outsiders were present, and one of the spectators announced after all was over that it was "one of the prettiest things he had ever seen."

The landslide on November 7th was immense. If Mr. Cleveland's Hawaiian policy had been an-nounced before the voters went to the polls the Democracy would have been buried still deeper. The present administration may have the courage of its convictions, but it is wise and far-seeing enough to choose the safest time for precipitating them on the country .- N. Y. Tribune.

President Cleveland has taken a bold course in offering to restore the native dynasty to the throne of the Hawaiian Islands, and this country may be involved in very serious complications before the affair is over .- Providence Journal.

It is the first time in American history that the power of the Republic has ever been used to force a monarchical yoke upon a people who had once won their independence. It is an act of national self-stultification.—Boston Journal.
